Curvature of the Spine.

DR. HAMILTON,
No. 47, North Gay street, Baltimore,
HAVING turned much of his attention during a long practice to the diseases of the Spine, begs leave to tender his services for the cure or relief of that afflicting malady. The approach of this disease is easily detected by an attentive observer. It makes its appearance generally in children between the second and sixth year; a protuberance of one or more of the small bones composing the spine becomes evident, loss of appetite, irregularity of the bowels, and emaciation soon follow, together with much disinclination to walk—and unless immediate aid is obtained, death or incurable decripitude through life are the certain consequences.

Doctor Hamilton has the satisfaction of knowing that his treatment of this disease, and application of the necessary apparatus, which is simplified at the same time, that it is materially improved, have received the unqualified approbation of many of the most eminent of his medical brethren in Baltimore. Spring corsets, upon a new principle, can be applied for the use of young ladies evincing a tendency to this disease, which, while they afford the most effectual support for either side, may be worn without observation. Satisfactory references might be given to parents whose children have profited by this improved mode of treatment, did not delicacy forbid the publication; they may be easily obtained if desired, by a private interview.

Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronised by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides: "Lee's Genuine Windham Bilious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

March 15 A P. GOVER.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Wanted,

A YOUNG MAN of sober and steady habits, to superintend a fishery. None need apply but one who is well acquainted with seine hauling, and can come well recommended. Enquire of the Printer.

FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1819.

From the Mercantile Advertiser, May 3.

LATEST FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The fast sailing ship Sachem, Hilliard, arrived at this port yesterday from Buenos Ayres, whence she sailed on the 10th March. We have received a file of papers of a late date, and a long letter from a correspondent at that place. From W. G. D. Worthington esqr. late consul at Buenos Ayres, who has arrived in this ship, we have been politely favored with an interesting detail of recent occurrences in South America, of which we have only time to notice a part in this day's paper.

Mr. Worthington left Chili on the 29th Jan. and made the journey across the continent from Valparaiso to Buenos Ayres in 21 days on horse back, distance computed at 420 leagues.

It was reported the U. States frigate Macedonian, arrived at Valparaiso about the beginning of Feb.

The President's message had been received at Buenos Ayres, and some remarks made upon it in the papers. They seem to attribute the non-recognition of their independence by the United States to the impression which had been made this side of the tropics respecting their party dissentions. They expected that their sovereignity would have been acknowledged in consequence of the favorable reports which they anticipated from the commissioners in the congress—but they did not appear to bear the disappointment in an improper manner.

Chili was by the last accounts freed from the royalists. Sanchez, who commanded there, after being beaten at Santa Fe, had retired among the American Indians, On the 14th Jan. Lord Cochrane sailed from Valparaiso with his squadron, consisting of the Maria Isabel, (the frigate taken from the Spaniards), the San Martin, the Santero, and the Chacabuco—supposed with the intention of touching at Africa, Calleo, &c. and to capture and burn the shipping at the latter place, as they had on board a large store of rockets, and provisions for four months. It was the't this naval expedition would give life and ascendancy to the Patriots in Lima. Captain Wooster, of the Lautaro, the real hero of the late naval success in Talcuhuana Bay, had resigned. Lord Cochran was fond of him, and wished him to remain.—His place was filled by Capt. Grise, of the British navy, so that the marine of Chili is now wholly commanded by Englishmen. The British frigate Andromache, which was said to be taking off from Lima about 5,000,000 dollars, perhaps bound to Rio Janeiro, it was suspected would be intercepted by Lord Cochran, under the pretence or doctrine that she was violating her neutral character.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

Buenos Ayres, March 2.

The state of this place is truly deplorable—its trade is very much reduced in consequence of the communication with the interior being cut off by wandering hordes of Indians, well armed and mounted who traverse the country, driving off the cattle, and committing excesses that shock humanity. All kind of foreign goods are nominal, and the produce of the country extremely scarce and high. The credit of the government is very much reduced, its paper being at 30 per cent discount, and daily getting lower. All the regular troops have been withdrawn from this city to act against the Montoneros, or Indians, who infest the interior, but they cannot do any thing with them.—Being well mounted, they always avoid a regular attack. It is said that the desertions have been very great from the troops sent out from here. The military duty of the city is now performed by the civicos, or militia, composed of the native population, and the free blacks. A mutiny took place on the 3d ult. in one of the regiments of blacks. It appears they were ordered to assemble without arms, when it was intended to propose to them to join the regular army which was acting against the Montoneros. They had a suspicion that some attempt of this kind was to be made, and appeared with arms and ammunition. To prevent a surprise they had their centinels stationed at the corners of the neighboring streets On being harrangued by their officers, requesting their consent to march, some few cried out that they were willing, but the majority declared they would not, "for God or man," and behaved in a very riotous and insulting manner. They finally dispersed of their own accord, firing their muskets off along the streets, cheering each other, and swearing to defend their equal rights with the whites. Measures were immediately taken by the government to check this mutinous spirit. Strong guards patroled the streets day and night, to apprehend the blacks of this regiment, and in a short time most of them were lodged in prison.

The U. S. sloop of war Ontario, has been to Lima, where she took on board, on freight for Rio Janeiro, about a million of dollars—she stopped at Valparaiso on the 27th Dec. but slipt her hawser and put to sea again three days after, apprehending that a search was to be attempted for the specie as Spanish property—it is said that Lord Cochran advised it.

Lord Cochran's squadron put to sea suddenly on the 14th Jan. from Valparaiso, in pursuit of two Spanish frigates that they had information had sailed from Lima for Panama—they were also to make a dash at the harbor of Lima. The Chilian and Buenos Ayrean army under San Martin, about 3500 strong, was to embark for the seige of Lima as soon as the fleet returned to transport them. Captain Wooster who commanded the O'Higgins frigate, resigned his commission just previous to the sailing of the fleet. The reason assigned for it is this: Lord Cochrane sent on board the frigate an order for her to be ready for sea in four hours, to which captain Wooster sent an answer that it was impossible; Cochran immediately repeated his order, adding that the word impossible was not in his vocabulary. Upon which captain W. threw up his commission, and the fleet sailed without him.

The ship Beaver of New-York, which was restored at Lima in Dec. last, was to come down to Valparaiso for a freight.

The Curiaso still remains here—she is under Chilian colors, commanded by capt. Delano in that service. The Horatio continues to wear the American flag, not having been transfered in consequence of the inability of the government to pay the amount that is due for her.

Considerable apprehension is entertained here of the coming of the Cadiz Armada.—Should it come out, Monte Viedo will no doubt be given up by the Portuguese, and then this river can be effectually blockaded. There cannot be a doubt of the ultime failure of this expedition. Although the people of this country are divided among themselves, and the interior in a state of commotion, yet they would join against any foreign enemy, and so the Spaniards are universally regarded.

March 4.

It is reported that a messenger was dispatched the day before yesterday to general San Martin, with orders for him to march his army to this place—it is said that he is to be named Director—and it conforms to what Pueyredon recommends in his speech to the Congress, which I enclose you. Fear of the Cadiz expedition is no doubt the principal cause of these movements. The expedition to Lima will of course be suspended, at least if San Martin comes this way.

EXTRACTS OF LETTERS.

Gibraltar, 30th March.

"We left Malaga on the 24th inst; the day previous, the lawyer informed our consul that the four Americans confined in that city, were cleared by the decision of the court, their long imprisonment being considered a sufficient punishment. During the imprisonment of these men, our countrymen have shewn them every kindness, and particularly our consul, George G. Barrell, Esq. who has not only advanced them money to a considerable amount, but has become individually responsible to the lawyers who have been their counsel during the trial. For this, and other similar acts towards them in the court of Africa, he deserves the gratitude of the sufferers, and the approbation of every American.

"The frigate United States sails this evening for Norfolk to be repaired. The Erie and Spark are here, but will return in a few days to join the squadron, who intend visiting the Tunisians, and putting them to rights; as they have lately obliged some American vessels to shew their Mediterranean passes, although they do not attempt to board them. This the commodore will not submit to, and they of course must desist, or take the consequences."

"March 26.

"Confirming my last respects of the 17th inst. I have now further to advise, that since the large sale of flour made at that time, we have no further arivals of the article—all parcels in store are held at $10, and speculators soon expected to come forward. Tobacco remains stationary at 13 dollars, without further sales, and rice dull at 6½ per cwt: wax is saleable at 40 a 42 per cwt and pipe staves 75 a 80 per m. N. York culled.—Colonials continue saleable at good prices, as at foot, and India goods generally, as dull as for some time past, without expectation for improvement—Nankeens becoming reasonable, will command 1¼ and 88-100 per piece.

Prices—Coffee 32 dls cwt—white Havana sugar 15½; Caraccas cocoa 28; Sumatra pepper 17; O. P. brandy 95 per pipe, dollars 4½ advance; Exchange on London 54d."

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 7, 1819.

The fictions of novelists are more frequently than mankind in general are aware of, equalled in impressiveness and cordial interest by incidents in real life—had the latter only the advantage of being expanded into more important size, and shaped into more artful and methodical form and polished by the practised writer of romance Of a multitude of instances I could mention in proof of this, there is one simple story which this day was brought to my recollection by an accidental coincidence of name, and which I have since transcribed with intention to offer it to you for the amusement of your readers. The hero of it was lately, and I hope is still living in England, in merited repute and felicity.

He was originally a peasant boy in the county of Nottingham, who after passing through the different gradations of domestic servitude, in which so many in all parts of the world acquire habits of dishonesty, selfishness and cunning, gave a striking proof of scrupulous honor and delicate disinterestedness that deserves to be put upon record; and it is more particularly deserving of applause and admiration, as it was an opportunity which most men would have thought themselves justified in grasping at, for the securing of an independence; and under circumstances in which the peace of thousands of families is every day irreparably injured, by a perverse combination of folly and indecorum, with fraud and impudence.

Mr. D——, the subject of the present article, had for many years secured the esteem and confidence of his master by integrity, diligence and affability. These desirable qualities were set off and improved by a well proportioned form, and a manly and pleasing countenance. Enjoying thus the general regard, and that first of satisfactions, the approbation of his own heart, his tranquility was suddenly interrupted, by discovering that he had unintentionally won the affections of a young lady in the family; rich, handsome and accomplished; the sister of his master, whom, of all women on the earth he would have preferred, had his station been more exalted, or hers less elevated. Agitated and alarmed, and under the deep impressions of gratitude, propriety and honor, which in the war of interests, are found to have so little weight with many, and from the impossibility of entering on an explanation without mentioning a name, which he resolved to run all risks rather than bring into question, he incidentally, without communicating any reason for it, quitted his situation and repaired to London.

His employer was naturally surprised, as well as concerned at so precipitate a step; his accounts, and the valuable property committed to his charge being left with his keys, carefully sealed and accurately arranged. Several years elapsed before the honorable motives of his abrupt departure were known; but the lady's attachment to, and perpetual repetition of tunes which George was known to have played on his flute, and her copying in needle work, a little drawing of his sketching, which had been left in the butler's pantry, first excited suspicion, and with other little circumstances, particularly the state of her health and spirits from the time of D——'s departure, at length convinced her brother, of the generous and highly meritorious conduct of his faithful and excellent domestic.

Lost in astonishment, sympathizing with the struggle in his sister's bosom, and convinced by undeniable evidence of the worth of the man she loved, he could not rest till he discovered the retreat of the man who had distinguished himself by so extraordinary an act of self denial: he recommended him effectually to a powerful patron, who procured for him a lucrative employment, in which he gradually acquired wealth.

Accident, or the impulse of unconquerable attachment, produced a meeting with his former mistress, and marriage speedily ensued.

Mr. D—— was, not long ago, in the enjoyment of that domestic happiness which worth like his deserves: as I said before, I hope he is still living, and in the most perfect enjoyment of his well merited comfort, and that he will long hold forth in his fate and honorable conduct, an example to the world, and a striking exception to the base obliquities of the common herd of sordid and profligate fortune hunters who marry for bread, and are perpetually on the watch to take advantage of youthful folly, or age without wisdom.

Inauspicious unions, usually commencing in improper advances on one side, carried on in obscene obscurity, and generally terminating in discord, ruin and disgrace, are described, in his manner, by Swift. I cannot refer to the title or volume of the works; but I recollect, that in his usual delicate way, he concludes the adventures of a fond pair of this description, with the following couplet:

"At Staine's, they keep the old blue boar,
Are cat and dog, and rogue and whore."

MR. SNOWDEN,

Every one seems to be crying out, "hard times! hard times!" and what every body says must be true, as the saying is, as a body may say. If such is the fact, Mr. Painter, and I am not disposed to deny it, would it not be better, under such circumstances, for every person to be more attentive to their business, and adopt a more prudent, industrious, and economical mode of living than such as they have heretofore practised? There is room for many to reform and retrench; and it is to be hoped that many will, and to try to keep on the free and safe side of the walls—though I acknowledge it is but a gloomy prospect with some, and a miserable evidence of their prudence and economy to see them spend the forenoon fishing, fowling, &c., or lounging about the streets at other peoples' doors, and the afternoon in ale houses, at chequers or backgammon. This, I presume, is what Franklin would call, "not working it right."——Solomon says, "there is a time for all things, a time to labor and get thirsty, and a time to quench thirst;" and I see no impropriety in a man stepping into a porter house or cellar, and refreshing himself with a glass of porter or ale, and going about his business: but when I see men spending not only two or three hours, but a whole afternoon, I am ready to conclude that such men love idleness almost as well as ale or porter. There are some men more excusable than others,—such as are independent and without families;—but when I see a man with a family frequent those houses, and one who, by the bye, not more than seven years ago, called his creditors together, and compromised with some of them for 75 or 80 cents to the dollar, payable in goods, and with others at 100 cents, payable in from one to three years, without interest or security, which he said he would be enabled to do by getting the indulgence, and immediately moving to some place he knew of, that was better calculated for his business, and where the necessaries of life were more easily and cheaply acquired than in this place—the only excuse that I can offer for him is, that I fear he has forgotten his engagements.—So ends the hasty remarks of

POOR RICHARD THE YOUNGER.

From the Norfolk Herald of May 3.

The United States ship John Adams, Capt Wadsworth, anchored in Hampton Roads on Friday evening last, in 14 days from Havana. The following intelligence has been politely communicated to Mr. Lyford, keeper of the Reading Room, by an officer of the John Adams:

The schr. Retrieve, of New-York, J. Lewis late master, from Cadiz, for Vera Cruz, was taken possession of by the mate and crew, who murdered the captain and took the vessel into Omoa, in the bay of Honduras; the mate and two of the crew are in confinement there.

Capt. Samuel Brown, and Mr. Dulet, mate of the brig Holkar, of New-York, and capt. Humphreys, a passenger, were murdered by the crew about the 9th of January last, about the 4th day out from Curacoa; the crew afterwards scuttled the brig and landed near Jacquemel, in St. Domingo; one of them a black, has been apprehended at Havana, and sent to New-Orleans.

The John Adams spoke, April 19th in lat. 24 55, lon. 79 50, ship Admittance, M'Laughlie, of Duxbury, ten days from New-Orleans for Antwerp; April 24th, lat 33 20, lon. 76 40, passed an American ship painted with two narrow white streaks, standing to the southward—shewed a black ball under her ensign, and a jack above it; spoke brig Rebecca, of and for Salem, 11 days from Havana.

We have heard several accounts of the mysterious disappearance of two men from a little sloop called the ROMP, belonging to this port, while at anchor in James River, a few days ago, and now give the following particulars upon the best information we have been able to collect.—The Romp was owned by Thomas Parker, who keeps a boarding house in this town, and navigated by him and an Irishman named Eugene Sullivan; she had been for some time employed in trading up and down James River and frequently to Petersburgh, for which place she departed hence on the 10th ult. but came to anchor opposite the house of Pleasant Wammack, a brother-in-law of Parker's who resides at Cannon's Marshes, on the Charles City shore. Here she remained several days, during which Parker and Sullivan were frequently ashore at Wammack's who states that they left his house one evening and went on board their vessel which he observed the next morning at anchor on the opposite side of the river, with her sails loosed; this however did not excite any apprehension; but as she remained in that situation the whole day, and no person was to be seen on board, he thought it rather extraordinary.—The next day a vessel coming down the river from Petersburg anchored near the sloop, and some of the people knowing her, went on board. They were surprised to find the deck a good deal stained with blood, and not a soul on board; they then went ashore at Wammack's, and from information given by him they concluded that either Parker or Sullivan, or more probably both of them had been murdered; this conjecture was confirmed when on going on board they found the vessel's cabin completely stripped of every article of furniture, baggage, &c. and none of the inhabitants on either side of the river could give any intelligence of the two men.

It was believed that an imprudent disclosure which Parker had made of his having a large sum in bank notes about him, induced an attempt to rob him, which could only be effected by the murder of him and his companion.—Another report states that Parker and Sullivan were observed by some person on shore to have a scuffle on board their vessel, in which both fell overboard and were never seen afterwards, leaving it to be inferred that both were drowned; and it is also believed that the blood on the vessel's deck was from sturgeons, of which there were several on board. [Ibid.

LOSS OF THE SCHOONER WALTON GRAY.

A gentleman who came passenger in the John Adams, states that the schooner Walton Gray, John Gray, master, of and from Baltimore, via Hampton Roads, bound to Havana, was wrecked on the Berry Islands on the 13th or 14th of April. The information of this disaster was brought to Havana on the 16th by the passengers in the W. G. who arrived just as the J. A. was preparing to get under way. The gentleman who brings this intelligence was not particular in making enquiries respecting the fate of the captain and crew, or of the cargo, but thinks it probable that no lives were lost, or it would have been mentioned; and he supposes that captain Gray and his people remained at the Island where the vessel was ashore, in order to get the cargo to New-Providence. The Walton Gray was formerly a packet trading between Baltimore Norfolk and Charleston.

TYPOGRAPHIC POWER.—BIBLES.

Messrs. Editors: The Bible, containing what is called the Apocrypha, in the English language, contains nearly a million words. The words of the Bible printed on your sheet, if your newspaper form were composed of Pearl type, would occupy about 11 sheets. Two of your pressmen could easily print thirteen bibles in one hour or 113 in ten hours. In the dark ages, viz. before the LIGHT OF PRINTING arose, a bible was a rarity: it cost thousands of dollars and was chained to the pulpit of the parish church, and the priest kept the keys both physical and moral. For less than half a day's common labor any man or woman in the United States may now have a well printed bible. I am not sufficiently acquainted with the Hebrew, Syriac, Greek, Latin, or any other language in which the inspired wrote, to say how much less paper the bible, in either of those languages, would require: but the Literati tell me that those languages require less room or space to express an idea, than the English. On this subject (the light of Printing) I have been almost charmed with the latter part of the 9th book of the Columbiad. I recommend the reading of that. The poetry of the intelligent, amiable, and patriotic Barlow, is well worth reading, I think; but perhaps I have no taste! Z.

GLORIOUS SPORT.

On the third of March about 800 men from the towns of Murry, Gaine's, Barre, Ridgeway and Shelby, encompassed about 150 square miles, on three sides, Lake Ontario being on the north, who marched towards a given point in the centre—driving bears, wolves, and deer. When the party arrived in the centre they had enclosed and surrounded one rabit, at which more than 200 rifles were discharged, but without effect. The rabit made its escape.

Charlotte Hall School.

THE board of trustees for Charlotte Hall school deem it their duty to announce to the public, the present flourishing condition of this institution. Since the introduction of the present professors, the school has rapidly progressed in the public estimation.

When Philip Briscoe, esq. was called to assume the office of Principal, there were but 27 pupils. The liberality of the State Legislature of 1817, enabled the trustees to retain his services and those of Mr. Miltimore for the classical department—the Reverend Mr. Neale H. Shaw has also been retained as professor of mathematicks, and he is aided in that department by Mr. Sweetsee, a gentleman in high estimation as a professor. Under the management of these gentlemen the school has now 95 boys; and very many applications have already been made for entrance and board. Heretofore a portion of the boys have been compelled to board at the neighboring houses at too great a distance from the school; the trustees are now making arrangements which will enable fifty boys more to be accommodated immediately at the school; so that at all times the Principal will be enabled to exercise a general superintendance over their moral deportment (to the corruption of which, the boys in this retired village have but few temptations). The board will remark to those who are unacquainted with this place, that no part of Maryland is more distinguished for its general healthiness. The price of board is only 100 dollars a year. The tuition is now but 28 dollars a year! It will be raised after August to 32 dollars—a price much lower, however, than any of the public schools of our state.

It is intended then by the trustees to select four boys (of poor and indigent parents) of promise, and to board, clothe, and educate them entirely at the expense of the institution, and afterwards to labor to procure them that station to which their talents and conduct may entitle them.

Signed, by order,
NEALE H. SHAW, Reg'r.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

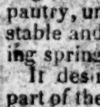
For Sale or Rent,

And possession given immediately,

Mount Eagle, with 35 to 40 acres of land, enclosed with a good post and rail fence, situate in Fairfax co. Va. and within a short mile of Alexandria. It commands a fine view of that town, the city of Washington, and a part of Georgetown—also of the river Potomac and of the country around. The improvements are, a handsome and convenient frame dwelling house, with kitchen wash house and pantry, under the same roof—smoke house, stable and carriage house, with a never failing spring of good water.

If desirable to a purchaser, I will add a part of the Spring Bank Tract, contiguous toit, on the west side of the Mount Vernon Road, containing 65 to 70 acres, part of which is in wood and the remainder cleared, with a good post and rail fence.



Also, for sale or rent—my three story brick ware-house on King street, next door to M. T. Stribling's flour warehouse.

Also for sale,

A valuable tract of land in Fauquier county Va. within 5 miles of Warrenton containing 1400 to 1500 acres, divided into small Farms, and rented from year to year.—The whole of this tract is good farming land and well adapted to plaster.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

At his Exchange and Brokers Office, Bridge-street, Georgetown,

WISHES to purchase from one to fifty thousand dollars of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia bank notes, which will be taken at a very small discount. All kinds of western and other uncurrent bank notes exchanged on the lowest terms.—Persons travelling to the westward can at all times get the notes of these banks at a reasonable discount.—Bills of exchange and bank checks, negociated on any part of the United States.—Notes of United States bank, and all of the branches, exchanged.

Georgetown, one door below Crawford's tavern, October 17.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next doo below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.
